MAYOR

June 28, 1990

The Honorable
Board of Aldermen
City of Somerville
Massachusetts 02143

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

I respectfully request the approval of your Honorable Board that the City of Somerville adopt the provisions of Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 258, Section 13.

In pertinent part the statute states:

...shall indemnify and hold harmless municipal officers, elected or appointed from personal financial loss and expense including reasonable legal fees and costs ... in an amount not to exceed one million dollars, arising out of any claim, demand, suit or judgement by reason of any act or omission, except an intentional violation of civil rights of any person, if the official at the time... was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment.

The acceptance of this provision will provide a substantial measure of comfort and relief for public officials in this City.

Respectfully,

Michael E. Capuano

Mayor

Somerville, Massachusetts

Dear Mayor Capuano:

I write to recommend that the City adopt the provisions of G.L. ch. 258, § 13. As we have discussed on a number of occasions, the surge of civil rights lawsuits against municipalities in recent years has been almost epidemic. The threat is real for municipal coffers but also for public officials who are often sued in their individual as well as public capacities. The prospect of a judgment against a public official and the possible loss of one's home to satisfy that judgment is daunting. The chilling effect prevents good people from seeking public office as well as intimidates current public officials from performing their duties.

To remedy this problem, the Legislature enacted § 13 of G.L. ch. 258 as a local option for municipalities. In pertinent part, the statute states that any city or town which accepts its provisions:

shall indemnify and hold harmless municipal officers, elected or appointed from personal financial loss and expense including reasonable legal fees and costs ... in an amount not to exceed one million dollars, arising out of any claim, demand, suit or judgment by reason of any act or omission, except an intentional violation of civil rights of any person, if the official at the time ... was acting within the scope of his official duties or employment.

The acceptance of this provision will, in my judgment, provide a substantial measure of comfort and relief for public officials in this City. Although the statutory term "municipal officers" is not defined in either the statute or annotated case decisions, a fair reading of the statute as a whole and in context with § 9 of G.L. ch. 258 (relative to public employee indemnification) convinces me that a Court would apply the statute to members of the Board of Aldermen. It is somewhat unclear, however, whether other officials, i.e., department heads, are brought within this statute's protection. Nevertheless, the benefits inherent in freeing public officials' from worry about personal liability in the conduct of their public business clearly outweigh some lack of clarity about statutory coverage.

For the above reasons, I recommend that you seek from the Board of Aldermen its approval to adopt this essential statutory protection. I have attached a copy of the statute hereto.

Very truly yours,

Purpose of law 1

1. Purpose of law

This section and § 9 of this chapter providing for indemnification of public employees are comprehensive treatment of subject of indemnification in area covered and are designed to preclude exercise of any inconsistent local power or function on same subject. Filippone v. Mayor of Newton (1983) 452 N.E.2d 239, 16 Mass.App. 417, reversed on other grounds 467 N.E.2d 182, 392 Mass. 622.

Section 9 of this chapter permitting public employers to indemnify public officials within scope of their official duties or employment from personal financial loss and expenses, including legal fees and costs arising out of intentional torts or civil rights violations, and this section, are specific in their terms and were intended by legislature to confine, on grounds of public policy, indemnification of public employees by their employers to covered cases where there is loss or actual expense which is personal to employee, not occasioned in civil rights cases by grossly negligent, willful or malicious conduct and, in any event, subject to maximum indemnification of $1 million. Id.

2. Payment

This section did not entitle holders of unsatisfied federal district court judgments against police officers in § 1983 action to payment from the town, which had accepted this section's provisions. Restivo v. Town of Swansea (1986) 495 N.E.2d 838, 398 Mass. 1002.
